

GENERATION Y and X

YOUR FINANCIAL FUTURE IS AT STAKE.

It's getting more difficult in this tough economy to save for your financial security; it is never too late or too early to start planning. That's why the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor has created the Wi$e Up program especially for women born between (1980-1990) Y and born between (1961-1980) X. With this free program, you'll learn everything you need to know about planning your future; paying down your debt; developing a budget for everyday expenditures and saving for vacations and your retirement.

Wi$e Up offers an online curriculum with 8 different modules, ranging from money basics to becoming an investor. Other beneficial resources such as e-mentoring and teleconferencing featuring financial experts can be obtained by completing a registration form. The online curriculum will help you overcome challenges in a comfortable environment that encourages questions and discussions. It is not only easy and self-paced, but also very rewarding and beneficial.

Wi$e Up also has a print curriculum for organizations that would like to teach the course.

Wi$e Up is an exciting opportunity for you to explore the world of financial security and retirement savings. Time is on your side. Start now! You can significantly enhance your financial security throughout your lifetime.

For More Information Contact:

Jacqueline Cooke, Regional Administrator, Women's Bureau, Region I, MA, NH, VT, CT, ME, RI
Email: cooke.jacqueline@dol.gov Phone: (617)565-1988

Grace Protos, Regional Administrator, Women's Bureau, Region II, NY, NJ, PR, VI
Email: protos.grace@dol.gov Phone: (646)264-3789

Lucia Bruce, Regional Administrator, Women's Bureau, Region III, PA, DE, D.C., MD, VA, WV
Email: bruce.lucia@dol.gov Phone: (215)861-4860

Website: www.dol.gov/wb